MOMENT FOR MISSIONS

SPRING FLOWERS FUNDRAISER ... THANK YOU!!!

Thank you to everyone who supported and volunteered to make this annual fundraiser on Mother's Day weekend a success! The weather was perfect! It was extra special for me as this was my first opportunity to spend time with you all since my recent and brief return. For those who were not there on that Friday morning when we picked up 150 flowering plants from Swift's Greenhouse in Gilman, you missed an amazing and very interesting tour of the greenhouse by none other than our longtime friend, Todd Swift! Needless to say, lots of hugs were exchanged. Todd was back for 3 weeks to help out during their busy season. As always, the flowers were beautiful and we were grateful for volunteers that morning ... Carl Sprague, Harvey Hornbeck, Shari Osier, Cheryl Lenhart, Robin and Mike McNichols, Carolyn Streeter, Sue McMain, and me. Thank you to Shari Osier and Harvey Hornbeck for helping me sell flowers and carry them out for those who needed assistance that Friday night. Lastly, thank you on Saturday to Carolyn Streeter, Kristy Van Der Molen, Harvey Hornbeck, Tammy Davis and Kara Dare for helping me sell the majority of the remaining flowers and clean up. When we closed at 1:00 pm, there were approximately 14 pots remaining. Thank you for purchasing almost all of the remaining flowers on Mother's Day. At this point, the remainder are spoken for. When Shari Osier returns from vacation, a profit total will be known. In the meantime, THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR SUPPORT! All proceeds from this fundraiser will be added to our general fund to help with church expenses.
